On March 27, The Candlelight Ball was at the Ritz-Carlton, Buckhead Hotel. The black-tie event is the major fundraising event for The Childhood Autism Foundation. Proceeds fund programs and services for individuals and families affected by autism throughout Georgia. This year's ball, in celebration of its 25th anniversary, raised $230,000 for the worthy cause.

Marietta lawyer Justin O'Dell, who practices with the firm of Cauthorn, Nohr & O'Dell, recently received an award for community service at the 11th Annual Justice Robert Benham Awards. The awards recognize lawyers and judges in Georgia who have made meaningful contributions to their communities and show positive contributions of State Bar of Georgia members beyond their legal or official work.

Tickets are officially on sale for Westside Elementary School's performance of School House Rock Live! The Drama Club will perform at the Earl Smith Strand Theatre on May 12 at 7 pm. Tickets are $12 and are available through the Strand box office or from a cast member. There will only be one show. Visit www.earlsmithstrand.org or call (770) 293-0080 for more information.

Fashion spotlight of the week: Wearing a seersucker suit and bow tie, Daniel White of Marietta - the look was light, and it suits the season.

Sally Litchfield is a longtime Marietta resident. She formerly practiced law in Marietta and now stays home to raise her two children. Send Sally news at sallylit@bellsouth.net. Call Sally at (770) 425-7122.
